

NOTES FOR THE CONSULTATION OF THE EXAM CALENDAR COMBINED BACHELOR AND MASTER OF SCIENCE IN GIURISPRUDENZA [LAW]

The exam timetable is organized in periods that do not coincide with the periods when lessons are held. Each exam period consists of one or more sessions. The exam timetable (October 2011 - September 2012) allocates 4 exam sessions for all courses and when necessary also includes partial exams. For foreign language courses 6 exam sessions are scheduled.

Students can take exams in all sessions as long as they satisfy the attendance requirements (the semester of lessons in the study plan must be finished).

Lessons are suspended at mid-semester in both the first and second semester for 1st partial exams. 2nd partial exams are held at the end of the semester of lessons (1st semester course exams are held after the Christmas holidays). The dates of partial exams may or may not coincide with the dates fixed for general exams.

The exam periods and exam sessions (reference period: October 2011 - September 2012) for the 5-year Combined Bachelor and Master of Science in Giurisprudenza [Law] (CLMG) are scheduled as follows:

Note

- "session" refers to both the exams of the current academic year and the previous years;
- the fourth exam session for II semester courses will be held in February 2013;
- exam sessions for the foreign language courses are scheduled for: October/November 2011; January, April, June, July, September 2012;
- if students choose a course relating to the Master of Science programs as an elective course, they must follow the exam calendar of such Study Program. An additional exam session has been scheduled in December (12-21 December 2011), for 1st semester courses, reserved for students who:
 1. are participating in: Exchange and Free Mover programs abroad in the 2nd semester 2011/2012 academic year;
 2. are participating in the Campus Abroad (Winter) program;
 3. are Incoming 1st semester (Exchange and single courses for visiting students);
 4. are participating internships abroad or in Italy in January/February 2012 period;
 5. are participating in the Moot Program.

Please note that for the additional exam session students CANNOT sit exams for previous year's courses which have not been passed, only those students whose teaching activities described in points 1,2, 4 and 5 will start before the end of the February exam period (11 February 2012) are admitted to participate in such session .

There is NO overlapping between compulsory course exam sessions of the same year and same degree program; therefore no two exams on the same day are usually scheduled. Such overlapping rule refers only to compulsory courses of the year in which the student is enrolled and do not refer to previous years' exams which have not been passed yet.

Exam timetable

The exam timetable for the October 2011 - September 2012 period is published in the second half of September 2011 on the University Internet site at www.unibocconi.eu/examtimetable. During the year the timetable of an exam session may be changed (only to a later date or time), in which case students do not need to re-register for the exam since their registration is automatically transferred to the new timetable. Exam dates are updated daily on the Internet site. In addition, any changes to the exam timetable can be viewed on the yoU@B student diary. Personalized exam timetables can be printed at Punto Blu and from the yoU@B student Diary <http://agenda.unibocconi.it>. Via <http://agenda.unibocconi.it> students can integrate their personalized exam timetable with the deadlines of other educational activities or personal interest activities, and organize and print all the information recorded in their diary for the desired period (daily, weekly, monthly etc).

The different types of exams are identified in the exam timetable by the following letters:

- I Partial exam
- S Written exam
- O Oral exam

Classroom and student allocation

Students can check the classroom assigned for their exam via yoU@B student diary as a general guide in the afternoon of the working day prior to the exam date. If the exam is held in more than one classroom, students are allocated following criteria set by the Department the course refers to. In any case the classroom published on the yoU@B student diary is the one the student has to go to. The list of classrooms assigned for exams is also published on the website (following the same timelines explained above) at www.unibocconi.eu/classrooms.

It is also posted daily:

- on the ground floor of the University building in via Sarfatti 25 on the "Today's exams and activities" bulletin board;
- on the ground floor of the University building in piazza Sraffa 13, on the monitors and on the bulletin boards.

Classrooms and student allocation are displayed on the bulletin boards Exams breakdown of students, located on the ground floor of the University buildings in via Sarfatti 25 and Piazza Sraffa 13.
