

NOTES FOR THE CONSULTATION OF THE EXAM CALENDAR MASTER OF SCIENCE PROGRAMS

1

The exam timetable is organized in periods that do not coincide with the periods when lessons are held. All courses have 3 exam sessions, with the exception of foreign languages that have 5. Exam distribution includes 2 sessions held at the end of the teaching semester; the third session (the last one) is considered a supplementary session. Lessons are suspended at mid-semester in both the first and second semester for 1st partial exams. 2nd partial exams are held at the end of the semester of lessons (1st semester course exams are held after the Christmas holidays). The dates of partial exams may or may not coincide with the dates fixed for general exams. Students can take exams in all sessions once the semester lessons included in their study plan have finished.

- the third session for second semester courses will be held in November 2011 period;
- the sessions for foreign languages will be held in: January, February, April, June, September 2011
- if students choose a course relating to the Combined Bachelor and Master of Science in Giurisprudenza [Law] as an elective course, they make use of the number of sessions provided for in the exam calendar of such Study Program;
- there is an additional exam session for 1st semester courses scheduled during the 13 to 22 December 2010 period, reserved for those students who:
 1. are participating in Exchange, Master CEMS, and Free-Mover Programs abroad in the second semester of the 2010-2011 academic year;
 2. are participating in the Campus Abroad Program (winter edition);

3. are incoming 1st semester (exchange, single courses for visiting students, and Double Degree students staying in Bocconi from the second semester of the 1st year to the first semester of the 2nd year)
4. are carrying out internships in Italy or abroad over the January - February 2011 period.

With reference to such additional session we would like to specify that Students CANNOT sit exams for previous year's courses which have not yet been passed, only students whose teaching activities described in points 1, 2, 3 and 4 will start before the end of the February exam period (12 February 2011) are admitted to the additional session.

There is NO overlapping between compulsory course exam sessions of the same year of studies and Master of Science degree program; therefore no two exams on the same day are scheduled. As far as electives are concerned, they may be present in more than one major. Therefore, the avoidance of timetable clashes is only guaranteed for Major compulsory courses.

The exam timetable for the October 2010 - September 2011 period is published in the second half of September 2010 on the University Internet site at www.unibocconi.eu/exams.

During the year the timetable of an exam session may be changed (only to a later date or time), in which case students do not need to re-register for the exam since their registration is automatically transferred to the new timetable. Exam dates are updated daily on the Internet site, so that if the date or time is changed, the new timetable is displayed and students may check the original timetable of the exam session by clicking on the exam icons. In addition, any changes to the exam timetable can be viewed on the yoU@B student Diary.

Personalized exam timetables can be printed out at any Punto Blu terminal and also from the yoU@B student Diary (<http://agenda.unibocconi.it>), which can be accessed from the Bocconi homepage. Via yoU@B students can integrate their personalized exam timetable with the deadlines of other educational activities and/or personal interest activities, and organize and print all the information recorded in their yoU@B Diary for the desired period (daily, weekly, monthly, etc).

The different types of exams are identified in the exam timetable by the following letters:

- PI Partial exam
- S Written exam
- O Oral exam

Classroom and student allocation

Students can check the classroom assigned for their exam via yoU@B student Diary as a general guide in the afternoon of the working day prior to the exam date.

If the exam is held in more than one classroom, students are allocated following criteria set by the Department the course refers to. In any case the classroom published on the yoU@B student diary is the one the student has to go to.

The list of classrooms assigned for exams is also published on the website (following the same timelines explained above) at www.unibocconi.eu/classrooms.

It is also posted daily:

- on the ground floor of the University building in via Sarfatti 25 on the "Today's exams and activities" bulletin board;
- on the ground floor of the University building in piazza Sraffa 13, on the monitors and on the bulletin boards.

Classrooms and student allocation are displayed on the bulletin boards Exams breakdown of students, located on the ground floor of the University buildings in via Sarfatti 25 and Piazza Sraffa 13.
