Lost in translation: what Brussels says and what we understand

presented by TITO BOERI

Increasingly often we can note the incommunicability existing between European Community institutions and the people of the European Union, both at the level of citizens and of the 25 governments. In this way the drive towards federalism has lost momentum and national egoism tends to prevail. However, perhaps we are simply in a historic phase which may pass.

Information

How to get to Trento

By car: A22 Brennero motorway, exiting at Trento Centro (around 90 km from Verona Nord); SS. 12 Abetone-Brennero road along the Adige valley. If you are coming from Padova, Bassano or Belluno take the SS. 47 Valsugana road (superstrada), whereas if you are coming from the Lombardia side of Lake Garda it is possible to take the SS 45bis road along the western side of the lake.

By train: Trento is on the Verona-Brennero-Monaco line. Numerous EC, IC, Eurostar (for Rome), and regional trains to/from Verona and Bolzano stop at the station. Direct link to Venezia-Mestre via Valsugana-Bassano del Grappa-Castelfranco Veneto.

By plane: the closest airports are the Dolomiti airport at Bolzano-San Giacomo, the Valerio Catullo airport at Verona-Villafranca, Treviso, Brescia, Venice, Milan-Linate and Bologna airports.

How to get around Trento by car

The city centre is limited traffic area (ZTL) where circulation is forbidden for motor vehicles from 00.00 to 24.00 both on weekdays and on Saturdays, Sundays and public holidays. In the city fee-paying car parking spaces are indicated with blue lines, applicable during the hours 8.00-19.30 on weekdays (including Saturdays).

Car parks

Coaches: Piazzale R. from Sanseverino-via F. Petrarca-via B. Clesio (only to let passengers on/off).

Campers: old Zuffo works area at the Trento Centro motorway exit

Cars: old Zuffo works area (750 places); Monte Baldo car park (Via Monte Baldo-Via Sanseverino 250 places); Piazzale Sanseverino (Via Sanseverino 285 places); old Sit area (Via Canestrini, 400 places).

Fee-paying car parks

Autosilo Buonconsiglio, Via Petrarca 1/5 (opening hours 6.00-24.00, 700 places); Piazza Fiera (opening hours 7.00-03.00, 460 places); Duomo, Piazza Mosna (opening hours 7.00-20.00 Mon-Sat, 201 places); Centro Europa (opening hours 7-20.30 Mon-Sat, 480 places); Autorimessa Europa, Via Roggia Grande 16 (opening hours 7.30-20.00 Mon-Fri. opening hours 7.45-12.45, 400 places); University car park (Via Tommaso Gar, 200 places), CTE car park (Via Bomporto, 300 places). A free bus service links the car parks in the Zuffo-Monte Baldo area with stops in Via Verdi, Via Rosmini and Piazza Dante.

Trento without barriers

The A, 2, 4, 7, 8, 13 and 17 bus lines provide facilities for disabled users. The information centre for the disabled, managed by the Handicrea co-operative in Via S. Martino 46 (tel. 0461.239396), open from 9.00 to 12.00 and from 13.30 to 17.00 Monday to Friday, provides information on services for the disabled, accommodation and tourist facilities and leisure activities.

Trento-Sardagna cablecar

Operational from 7.00 to 22.30, running every 15 minutes at the busiest times (7.00-9.00, 11.30-14.30 and 17.00-20.30) and every 30 minutes at other times.

Guided visits

Every Saturday the Trento tourist office organises guided visits to Buonconsiglio Castle, starting from the office at Via Mancini, 2 at 10 a.m. The cost of the visit is 3 euro; free for holders of Trento Card. On Saturday at 3 p.m. there is a guided visit to the centre of Trento. The cost of the visit is 3 euro; free for holders of Trento Card (for information see: www.apr.trento.it, informazioni@apr.trento.it).
