

Table of Contents

1. Introduction
2. Crucial Features of the Social Security Debate: A Cross-Country Analysis
  - 2.1 A Comparison of PAYG Social Security Systems
  - 2.2 Demographic Trends: Population Aging
  - 2.3 Labor Market Trends: Early Retirement
  - 2.4 Political Representation in an Aging Society
3. Theories of Welfare State Expansion and Retrenchment
  - 3.1 Theories of Welfare State Expansion
  - 3.2 A Political Economy Approach to Social Security
  - 3.3 Aging and Retrenchment
4. Assessing the Political Sustainability of Social Security Systems: A Theoretical Framework
  - 4.1 The Economic Environment
  - 4.2 The Political System
  - 4.3 Methodology and Calibration
5. The Future of the Social Security System in France
  - 5.1 The Current Social Security System: An Overview
  - 5.2 Demographic Elements
  - 5.3 Political Constraints and the Future of Social Security
6. The Future of the Social Security System in Germany
  - 6.1 The Current Social Security System: An Overview
  - 6.2 Demographic Issues
  - 6.3 The Future of the German System
7. Political Sustainability and Reforms in Italy
  - 7.1 An Overview of the Italian Social Security System
  - 7.2 Aging in Italy
  - 7.3 Political Sustainability of the Reforms
  - 7.4 An Evaluation of the Reforms in a Greying Society

- 8. Political Sustainability and the Silent Reform in Spain
    - 8.1 An Overview of the Spanish Social Security System
    - 8.2 Spain: an Aging Society
    - 8.3 Which Future for the Spanish System
  - 9. Political Sustainability and the Silent Reform in Spain
    - 9.1 An Overview of the British Social Security System
    - 9.2 Aging in the UK
    - 9.3 Challenges in the Future
  - 10. Political Sustainability in a Redistributive System: the US (TBC)
    - 10.1 The Current Social Security System:
      - A Brief Description
    - 10.2 Aging in the US
    - 10.3 Political Sustainability
  - 11. Demographics, Politics Sustainability and Reform Options: A Cross-country Comparison
    - 11.1 Assessing the Political Sustainability of Social Security
    - 11.2 Country - Specific Features
    - 11.3 The Political Feasibility of Postponing Retirement
    - 11.4 Delegating Pension Policy: A Role for the European Commission?
- A. Technical Appendix
- B. Data Appendix