

THE CHOSEN FEW:
HOW EDUCATION SHAPED
JEWISH HISTORY, 70 – 1492

DRAFT OF FEBRUARY, 2011

MARISTELLA BOTTICINI

ZVI ECKSTEIN

CONTENTS

Introduction		1
Chapter 1	70 to 1492: How Many Jews Were There and Where and How Did They Live?	13
Chapter 2	Were the Jews a Persecuted Minority?	59
Chapter 3	The People of the Book, 200 B.C.E.–200	74
Chapter 4	The Economics of Hebrew Literacy in a World of Farmers	91
Chapter 5	The Chosen Few: Jews in the Talmud Era, 200–650	109
Chapter 6	From Farmers to Merchants, 750–1150	141
Chapter 7	Educated Wandering Jews, 850 –1250	178
Chapter 8	Segregation or Choice? From Merchants to Money Lenders, 1000–1500	232
Chapter 9	The Mongol Shock: Can Judaism Survive When Trade and Urban Economies Collapse?	287
Chapter 10	1492 to Today: Open Questions	303
Appendix		315
Bibliography		324

CONTENTS

Introduction		1
Chapter 1	70 to 1492: How Many Jews There Were, Where and How Did They Live?	13
	From Jesus to Mohammed (1-622): A World of Farmers Jewish Demographic Collapse Land of Israel Egypt and North Africa Syria, Asia Minor, and Western Europe Mesopotamia and Persia A World of Farmers Summary
	From Mohammed to Hulagu Khan (622-1258): Farmers to Merchants The Rise of the Muslim Empire: Urbanization at its Zenith The Jewish Occupational Transition (750-900) Migrations Within the Muslim Empire (800 – 1200) Migrations to Christian Europe (850 – 1250) Jewish Demography Summary
	From Hulagu Khan to Tomas de Torquemada (1258 – 1492): The End of the Golden Age The Mongol Shock in the Middle East Jews in Late Medieval Europe Summary
	Jewish History: Puzzles
Chapter 2	Were the Jews a Persecuted Minority? Restrictions on Jewish Economic Activities The Roman, Byzantine, and Persian Empires, c. 1 — c. 650 The Muslim Empire, 632 — 1258 Medieval Christian Europe, 850 — 1492 Did Taxation Discriminate against the Jews? Physical versus Portable Human Capital Self-Segregated Religious Minority The Economics of Small Minorities Summary	59
Chapter 3	The People of the Book, 200 B.C.E. — 200 The Two Pillars of Judaism from Ezra to Hillel, 500 — 50 B.C.E.: The Temple and the Torah The Lever of Judaism: Education as a Religious Norm The Destruction of the Temple in 70: From Ritual Sacrifices to Torah Reading	74

	The Legacy of Rabbinic Judaism: the Mishna and Universal Primary Education
	Judah haNasi and the World of the Mishna
	Jewish Primary Education in Tannaic Times, 10 — 200
	Judaism and Education: The Unique Link in the World of the Mishna
Chapter 4	The Economics of Hebrew Literacy in a World of Farmers	91
	Heterogeneity and The Choices Facing Jewish Farmers c. 200
	The Economic Model: Basic Setup
	The Economic Model: Predictions
	Life in a Village in the Galilee c. 200 Through the Lens of the Theory
	Annex 4.A: Formal Model of Education and Conversion of Farmers
	Education
	Conversion
Chapter 5	Jews in the Talmud Era, 200 — 650: The Chosen Few	109
	An Increasingly Literate Farming Society
	Commitment to Education
	Evidence from the Talmud
	Evidence from the Early Gaonic Responsa
	Synagogues
	Literate Jews in a World of Illiteracy
	Ammei Ha-Aretz
	Implementation of the Jewish Educational Reform: A Summary
	Conversions of Jewish Farmers
	Jewish Population Dynamics
	Literary and Epigraphic Sources
	The Period 1-325
	The Period 325 -700
	Summary
Chapter 6	From Farmers to Merchants, 750 — 1150	141
	The Economics of Hebrew Literacy in a World of Merchants
	The Economic Model: Basic Setup
	The Economic Model: Predictions
	The Golden Age of Educated Jews in the Muslim Empire
	Hebrew Religious Literacy
	Contract-Enforcement Institutions
	Earnings in Farming and Urban Skilled Occupations
	The Slow Transition to Urban Occupations
	Urbanization and Jewish Occupational Transition
	Universal Primary Education Among Jews
	Intellectual Prominence: The Geonim
	No Conversions and Stable Jewish Population
	Summary
	Annex 6.A: Formal Model of Education and Conversion of Merchants
	Education

Conversion

Chapter 7	Educated Wandering Jews, 800 — 1250 Wandering Jews Before Marco Polo The Radhanites Merchants from France to China Jewish Traders in the Indian Ocean: Abraham Ben Yijū Rabbi Samuel haNagid and the Golden Age of Spanish Jewry Great Medieval Travelers: Benjamin of Tudela Jewish Migration Within the Muslim Empire Muslim Attitudes Toward Religious Minorities Free and Voluntary Jewish Diaspora Jewish Population Dynamics Egypt and the Maghreb The Iberian Peninsula Under Muslim Rule Jewish Migration to Christian Europe The Origin of Jews in Medieval Europe Europe from Charlemagne to Frederick II (800 - 1250) A Patchwork of Competing Kingdoms The Power of the Church Urbanization and the Commercial Revolution Geography and Timing of the Jewish Diaspora Jews in the Iberian Peninsula Under Christian Rule Italian Jewry French Jewry German Jewry Anglo-Jewry Rights and Regulations of Jews Standards of Living Migration to Europe: Push or Pull? Migration of the Jewish Religious Center Summary	178
Chapter 8	Segregation or Choice? From Merchants to Money Lenders (1000-1500) The Economics of Money and Credit in Medieval Europe Reading, Writing, and Computing Asymmetric Information, Networking, and Arbitrage Government Finance Contract-Enforcement Institutions Jewish Prominence in Moneylending: Hypotheses Guilds and Usury Bans Persecutions and Portable Human Capital From Wine Trade to Moneylending The Dynamics of Jewish Moneylending in Medieval Europe England France Germany, Austria, Central and Eastern Europe The Iberian Peninsula Jewish Moneylending in Medieval Italy: A Detailed Analysis	232

	Attitudes Toward Moneylending
	Jewish Attitude Toward Moneylending
	Christian Attitude Toward Moneylending
	Facts and Competing Hypotheses
	The Weak Link Between Guilds and Jewish Moneylending
	The Weak Link Between Usury Bans and Jewish Moneylending
	Why Persecutions Cannot Explain Jewish Moneylending
	The Weak Link Between Wine Trade and Moneylending
	From Merchants to Money Lenders: Comparative Advantage in Sophisticated Intermediation
	Annex 8.A: The Charter to the Jews of Vienna
Chapter 9	The Mongol Shock: Can Judaism Survive When Trade and Urban Economies Collapse?	287
	The Mongol Conquest of the Muslim Middle East
	Socioeconomic Conditions of the Middle East Under the Mongols
	Jewish Demography Under Mongol and Mamluk Rule: An Experiment
	Persia
	Mesopotamia
	Egypt and Syria
	Summary
Chapter 10	1492 to Today: Open Questions	303
	Trajectory of the Jewish People over the Past 500 Years
	Persistence of Jewish Occupational Structure
Appendix		315
Bibliography		324